

Statement from the Union of Canadian Correctional Officers - CSN

Moncton, October 28th, 2018 – As part of the trial that begins tomorrow in Moncton, the Union of Canadian Correctional Officers (UCCO-SACC-CSN) wishes to offer its sincere condolences to the family of Matthew Hines.

The union also wishes to reiterate its support to its two members who have been centered out and face criminal charges following two investigations by the RCMP.

As this case is now before the court, and is subject to a publication ban the union will not make any further comment so as not to interfere with legal proceedings.

About the union

The Union of Canadian Correctional Officers (UCCO-SACC-CSN) represents more than 7400 members, spread across Canada's five major regions: Pacific, Prairies, Ontario, Québec and Atlantic. UCCO-SACC-CSN represents the CX1, CX2 and CX3 job titles in 49 federal institutions.

-30-

For more information :
Noémi Desrochers
Communications UCCO-SACC-CSN
noemi.desrochers@csn.qc.ca
514 216-1825