

Presentation of the UCCO-SACC-CSN's 2022 Negotiation Project

Local General Assemblies' Tour from November 7 to December 8, 2022

TO THE MEMBERS OF UCCO-SACC-CSN

In preparation for the next round of bargaining, we travelled coast to coast from September 6th to 26th to consult with all 49 local unions to prepare our draft collective agreement. As in the past, all members were invited to attend local general assemblies to submit their suggestions of demands. Many of you came to tell us about the issues that concern you and to suggest demands you would like to bring to the bargaining table.

Over 800 suggestions of demands were submitted by members attending the general meetings. Your bargaining committee worked tirelessly to read and analyze each of these demands to create a unifying and ambitious negotiation project. Today, we present to you the result of our work.

During the September tour, the members were also asked to vote on the issues they wanted to prioritize. In the current context, it is no surprise that salary was identified as the most important priority for all locals, followed by premiums and leave.

Accordingly, this negotiation project includes several provisions to improve members' overall compensation. For instance, it includes increases for all premiums and a special allowance for the work performed during the Covid-19 pandemic. It also includes a danger allowance to reflect the dangerous nature of our work as correctional officers and provides for a substantially improved paid leave plan, as well as a better access to leave for all members.

Of course, we are also including salary increases that will reflect the increase in cost of living, the increase in workload, the probability of being physically or psychologically injured in the workplace, the labour shortage, and the salary increases within other federal law enforcement groups in recent years. Correctional officers deserve to be fairly compensated for the work they do!

In addition to these monetary demands, we felt it was important to include some of your demands regarding discipline, forced overtime, dog handlers and several other important issues.

Moreover, we are asking the members for a mandate to inform the Treasury Board that we will choose the conciliation mechanism under Section 103 of the Federal Public Sector Labour Relations Act (FPSLRA) rather than binding arbitration. Choosing arbitration would restrict our ability to negotiate specific work issues and to mobilize to support our demands.

We have built an ambitious negotiation project for all UCCO-SACC-CSN members. Our determination and mobilization will determine the results we achieve.

PROUD. UNITED. STRONG.

Have a good debate,

Your negotiation committee

Important note: Posting this negotiation project on social media (or otherwise) gives the employer an advantage by giving it access to our demands before we get theirs. Consequently, out of respect and solidarity for all CXs across the country, we ask that you do not publish or share this document outside of this general assembly.*

Discipline

Forcing the employer to disclose to the employee, five days before a disciplinary hearing, all the evidence used during a disciplinary investigation or disciplinary process, including video recordings and non-redacted investigation reports (article 17.07¹).

17.07
a. Subject to the Access to Information Act and Privacy Act , the Employer shall provide the employee access to the information used during the disciplinary investigation.
b. It is agreed that this provision is designed to provide the employee who was subject to a disciplinary investigation, access to the information and/or document(s) that have been used in the course of said investigation in accordance with the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act , without the employee having to make an application for said information under the Access to Information Act . The access provided in paragraph 17.07 should be provided promptly within the framework of the disciplinary hearing.	b. It is agreed that this provision is designed to provide the employee who was subject to a disciplinary investigation or a disciplinary process , access to the information and/or document(s), including all relevant documents and video recordings and non-redacted investigation reports that have been used or produced in the course of said investigation in accordance with the Access to Information Act and the Privacy Act , without the employee having to make an application for said information under the Access to Information Act . The access provided in paragraph 17.07 should be provided promptly within the framework of the disciplinary hearing. The employee shall be provided disclosure at least five (5) days prior to the disciplinary hearing.

Ensuring employees are suspended with pay pending a disciplinary investigation and during the investigation (appendix G of the collective agreement and article III-C of the global agreement).

III-C- SUSPENSION DURING AN INVESTIGATION (REFERENCE: ARTICLE 17)
For the purpose of these provisions, CSC will apply the following:
2.However in circumstances where local management is satisfied that the continued presence of an employee presents a serious or immediate risk to staff inmates, the public, or the reputation of CSC, the employee can be suspended without pay until the conclusion of the investigation and a decision has been rendered on the status of the employee.	2.However in circumstances where local management is satisfied that the continued presence of an employee presents a serious or immediate risk to staff inmates, the public, or the reputation of CSC, the employee can be suspended without pay until the conclusion of the investigation and a decision has been rendered on the status of the employee.
3.In such case as identified in 2) above, local management shall review every three (3) weeks the status of the investigation and consider the possibility of reinstatement within a reasonable period of time provided there is no longer a serious or immediate risk. Every three (3) weeks the local management will inform the employee in writing of the decision with the applicable reasons. The reasons must be sufficient enough to allow the employee to understand the rationale for the decision.	3.In such case as identified in 2) above, local management shall review every three (3) weeks the status of the investigation and consider the possibility of reinstatement within a reasonable period of time provided there is no longer a serious or immediate risk. Every three (3) weeks the local management will inform the employee in writing of the decision with the applicable reasons. The reasons must be sufficient enough to allow the employee to understand the rationale for the decision.

Limiting the duration of a disciplinary investigation to three months (new article under article 17.11).

NEW ARTICLE	17.11 The duration of a disciplinary process, from the reception of the convening order by the employee to the handing of the disciplinary measure, if any, shall last no more

Dog Handlers

Converting the dog handler premium to 4 % of the hourly rate for each hour worked (currently $1 per hour), which would equal an extra $1415 a year for a full-time dog handler (article 43.01).

43.01 Dog handlers' allowance
a. When a detector dog handler is required to handle a trained detector dog during a shift, and in recognition of the duties associated with control, care and maintenance of the detector dog at all times, the employee shall be paid the following allowance of one ($1) dollar per hour.	a. When a detector dog handler is required to handle a trained detector dog during a shift, and in recognition of the duties associated with control, care and maintenance of the detector dog at all times, the employee shall be paid the following allowance of one ($1) dollar per hour equivalent to four percent (4%) of the applicable hourly rate.

Allocating one hour per shift to dog handlers exclusively to take care of the dog (new article under 43.01).

	e. The employer shall allow detector dog handlers one (1) hour per shift at work for the specific purpose of taking care of the dog.

Allocating $100 to dog handlers for each month. The amount of the allowance includes rental of the property, electricity consumption, security lighting, water consumption, storage of food and supplies and general maintenance not included in the work time of dog handlers (new article under 43.01).

	f. A dog handler shall receive an allowance of $100.00 for each dog for each month. The allowance includes rental of the property, electricity consumption, security lighting, water consumption, storage of food and supplies and general maintenance not included in the work time of dog handlers.

Mandatory Overtime

Restricting the employer's discretion to order mandatory overtime. Overtime would be voluntary, with the exception of a penitentiary emergency. (definition of « penitentiary emergency » under article 2 and articles 21.10 and 21.16).

NEW DEFINITION	Penitentiary emergency: Medical emergency, natural disaster, significant weather event that impedes employees from getting to work, riot, hostage taking, escape, attempted escape or major disturbance (situation d'urgence dans un pénitencier).
21.10 Assignment of overtime work The Employer shall make every reasonable effort:	Overtime is voluntary, with the exception of a penitentiary emergency as defined in clause 2.01. The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to modify institutional routine before ordering mandatory overtime. The Employer shall make every reasonable effort:
21.16 Emergency situation In the case of an emergency, as determined by the Employer, an employee who works a regularly scheduled shift and is required to work continuously during the entire period between the end of the said regularly scheduled shift and the start of the next regularly scheduled shift is entitled to time and three-quarter (1 3/4) compensation for all hours continuously worked after the end of the said regularly scheduled shift.	a. Ending the possibility to be ordered to work for more than 16.5 consecutive hours (article 21.02).

21.02 When a shift is scheduled for an employee on a rotating or irregular basis:	h. With the exception of a penitentiary emergency as defined per clause 2.01, an employee shall not work in excess of sixteen and one half (16.5) consecutive hours.
---	--

Introduce a minimum 8-hour rest period before the next shift for correctional officers forced to work overtime; if the 8-hour rest period is not possible before the start of the next scheduled shift, the hours will be paid even if not worked (article 21.16 b).

21.16 Emergency situation
In the case of an emergency, as determined by the Employer, an employee who works a regularly scheduled shift and is required to work continuously during the entire period between the end of the said regularly scheduled shift and the start of the next regularly scheduled shift is entitled to time and three-quarter (1 3/4) compensation for all hours continuously worked after the end of the said regularly scheduled shift.	a. Various Demands

Forcing the employer to pay the legal fees for a correctional officer facing criminal charges or civil lawsuits for events stemming from work-related events (new article).

	NEW PROPOSAL
	The employer shall pay the legal fees of an employee's chosen lawyer when he or she is subject to a police investigation or faces criminal charges and/or civil lawsuits stemming from work-related events.

Extending the notification delay for a shift change to 7 days (instead of the current 96 hours), without which the employee is entitled to overtime rate for the first full shift worked on the new schedule (article 21.03 d).

21.03
d. An employee whose regularly scheduled shift is changed, pursuant to subparagraph 21.02(b)(ii), without ninety-six (96) hours prior notice shall be compensated at the rate of time and three quarters (1 3/4) for the first (1st) full shift worked on the new schedule. Subsequent shifts worked on the new schedule shall be paid for at straight time.	d. The selection of the mediator will be by mutual agreement.

Ensuring shift workers will not work both Christmas and New Year as much as possible (article 26.09).

26.09 The Employer will as much as possible, not schedule an employee to work both December 25 and January 1 in the same holiday season without his or her consent. In order to achieve this goal, the Employer shall transmit to the local Union, prior to November 15 every year, the work schedule covering the period mentioned above. If difficulties should arise with regard to achieving the goals stipulated above, the Employer and the Union shall meet to work out the best way of achieving the stipulated goals.	Move to clause 34 before “Vacation Leave”.

Salary, Allowances and Premiums

Introducing a $5000 annual premium for all correctional officers in recognition of the increasingly dangerous and complex work performed by correctional officers (new article).

	NEW PROPOSAL
	In recognition of the increasingly dangerous and complex work carried out by correctional officers, as well as the increase in the occurrence and gravity of psychological and physical injuries amongst correctional officers: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> (a) The Employer will pay to employees a Danger Allowance of five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) per annum. (b) This allowance is paid on the same basis as the employee's regular pay and is subject to the yearly wage increases provided for in this collective agreement. (c) An employee is entitled to receive the allowance during any period of paid leave.

Introducing a special allowance of $1,00 for each hour worked in an institution between April 1, 2020 and March 31, 2022 (including overtime) in recognition of the increased and sustained efforts and hardships brought about by the Covid-19 pandemic (new article).

	NEW PROPOSAL
	Special allowance for the period starting April 1, 2020
	In recognition of the increased and sustained efforts and hardships brought about by the Covid-19 pandemic, in the unique context of maintaining critical services twenty-four hours a day in a closed environment without having the possibility to telework, employees are entitled to a special allowance corresponding to one dollar ($1.00) for each hour worked on a post at an institution or on escort between April 1, 2020 and March 31, 2022.
	The union wishes to reserve its right to negotiate a special allowance in the event that a similar situation as the Covid-19 pandemic occurs in the future.

Converting shift and weekend premiums to 8 % of the hourly rate for each hour worked (instead of the current $2 per hour). This would mean an increase of $1.43 per hour, for a total of $3.43 per hour, for a CX-2 at the maximum pay step. A correctional officer working 1500 hours for which one of these premiums apply would receive an extra $2145 per year (articles 25.01 et 25.02).

25.01 Shift premium
An employee working on shifts will receive a shift premium of two dollars ($2.00) per hour for all hours worked, including overtime hours, between 3:00 pm and 7:00 am. The shift premium will not be paid for hours worked between 7:00 am and 3:00 pm.
